Tomorrow February 22 is the actual anniversary of George Washington's birth in A.D. 1732. (Had he been born in antediluvian times, he would still be alive and in his prime!)

He was a church member whose archived papers are sprinkled with references to God and His providence. A nephew reported seeing him more than once on his knees in his library reading the Bible. Washington wrote to a friend, "The Hand of providence has been so conspicuous in all this [the success of the Revolution], that he must be worse than an infidel that lacks faith, and more than wicked, that has not gratitude enough to acknowledge his obligations."

Announcements

Please be reminded: before worship begins (at 11 A.M.), announcements concerning your congregation are made verbally. These can include additions, cancellations, and so forth which arise after the printing of the bulletin.
