Corporate Prayer of Repentance

"Heavenly Father, fountain of all good, destroy in me every lofty thought. Break any pride within me to pieces and scatter it to the winds. Tear away each clinging shred of self-righteousness and implant within me true lowliness of spirit.

O Holy Trinity, three Persons and one God, inhabit me and make me a temple consecrated to Your glory. Forgive me all my sins of thought and deed against Your holy law. Cause me to trust in Your presence and to know that where You dwell, evil cannot abide.

Father, lead me deeper into fellowship with You and Your Son that I might know fullness of joy in the Holy Spirit. Cause Your countenance to be the peace of my conscience as I abide in Christ through grace. Strengthen me to run the race of faith before You in the days You have ordained for my life. I ask in Jesus' name that in all that pertains to me, He would be glorified. Amen."

From the Bible NEVER Said Dept:

John the baptizer preached saying, "Repent, for the Kingdom of God will not appear for at least two thousand years from now!"

Announcements

Coffee Hour today following morning worship.

Please be reminded: before worship begins (at 11 A.M.), announcements concerning your congregation are made verbally. These can include additions, cancellations, and so forth which arise after the printing of the bulletin.
